

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1894.

NO. 31

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The Woodstock Lodge No. 639, of F. A. M., will celebrate St. John's day at Woodstock, Pulaski county, on the 23d. A fine time is expected and everybody invited.

—Our school election at this place was set aside by the county superintendent on the grounds of opening the polls too late. They never commenced voting until after 2 o'clock, p. m.

—Mr. J. G. Frith, of our town, attended the democratic convention at Nicholasville, last week, and while he was gone from home his wife became the mother of a 10 lb boy. When Mr. Frith returned home, he named his boy, James Bennett McCreary.

—Mrs. L. H. Carlock, of Berea, will deliver a lecture at Brodhead on Sunday, the 17th. She is a very intelligent lady and a fine speaker, and has a good subject, "The Evil Effects of Intoxicants," and we hope everybody in the community will come and hear her.

—Mr. C. H. Brown, the gentleman, who was operator at Rowland before the railroad company removed the office at that place, came up to our town last Thursday to hold down the wires at this place, for a few days, while Mr. Joe Farmer, our operator, and wife, spend a few days visiting their friends and relatives.

—The Hon. W. O. Bradley, who says he is going to be the next governor of Kentucky, while in Mt. Vernon a few days ago, said that by the time the next president would be nominated that there would be no democratic party. He said they were coming 10,000 strong to the republicans, and he opened the doors of his republican party and invited what few democrats there are in Rockcastle to join in with him. We think much of the colonel as a lawyer and as a man, but notwithstanding all our love for him, we must tell him that old Rockcastle has got a few old moss backed democrats that will never vote the republican ticket.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The union services will be held at the Christian church Sunday night by Rev. S. M. Logan.

—The Messenger says that the Penn meetings at Owensboro closed with 111 conversions. All but five joined the Baptist churches.

—In Louisville next Sunday, the pulpits of 11 Methodist churches will be occupied by women, notwithstanding the injunction in 1 Cor. 14:34.

—The new Presbyterian church at Henderson was dedicated Sunday. It was erected at a cost of $70,000, and an immense crowd witnessed the dedication ceremonies.

—Rev. Thomas Bottomley is the oldest preacher in Kentucky. He was born in England, is 90 years old and has been preaching 72. He is now located at Hopkinsville and is hale and hearty. He was a Methodist circuit rider for 50 years.

—During the last 11 months, Rev. John Bell Gibson has held five protracted meetings in as many towns with a total of 200 additions to the churches. This is in addition to his regular pastoral work and is a record both to be proud of and not easily beaten.

—It is to be hoped that every one present at the Baptist church next Sunday morning will vote unanimously that the organ be moved to and remain in the middle of the church. After its faithful service for nearly a quarter of a century, many do not deem the instrument a worthy subject for further discussion. JOE F. WATERS.

—Grains of wheat found in Egyptian mummy cases have been known to germinate after lying dormant for 3,000 years. The plant they produced is almost identical with the wheat grown in Egypt at the present time.

—Joseph K. Lockett, of Henderson, has made a wager that he can eat seven gallons of popcorn between the hours of 6 A. M. and 6 P. M. It is hoped that it will kill him.

—During the 50 years between 1790 and 1840, 280 vessels of the British navy were struck by lightning, causing a loss of $250,000 and killing or injuring 350 men.

—The 12th annual meeting of the Sunday-School Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Kentucky will be held at Frankfort from June 19 to 21.

—On June 20 the Chesapeake and Ohio will run a special limited excursion from Louisville to Old Point Comfort, placing the round-trip fare at $15.

—Dr. Caldwell says that there are but three known "tobacco takers"—the African goat, the hideous tobacco worm and man.

—The prohibitionists of Kansas have nominated a full State ticket, with I. O. Pickering at its head for governor.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within 24 hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Duncan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Dr. I. S. Wesley is attending the bedside of W. L. Peairs at Kingsville. —Patsy Lester, whose name was dropped from the pension roll some five years ago, has been restored and has lately drawn $750 with a continuance of $12.50 per month.

—Rev. H. M. Shouse has organized a Sunday-school at the school house just above town, with about 50 pupils. Bro. S. seems to be very zealous along that line and his congregation at the Baptist church is much pleased with him as pastor.

—Mrs. Myna Lucas, wife of W. E. Lucas, departed this life on the 7th, after an illness of nearly 12 months. She was an excellent woman, a kind mother and devoted wife. Her remains were interred in the Sims burying ground Friday, after prayer by Rev. F. Grider and an appropriate talk by her pastor, Rev. H. M. Shouse.

—After telling of the shootings and killings at and near Yosemite, which we give substantially in another column, our correspondent says of A. O. Watkins:

It is reported that he figured in several killings, though it is not known except in the case of one Bill Miller, whom he killed some ten years ago on the railroad two miles above Grove. He is a native of Arkansas, but came here from Vanceburg, this State, about 14 years ago and worked as foreman for the Green River Lumber Co. He was much liked by those with whom he did business, and was well qualified for business. The writer has frequently been at his house and a kinder or more friendly man it has never been our lot to meet. Though with all this, he was said to be a very dangerous man when aroused. As for Peairs, should he recover, as is likely, he ought to look at his past life, which if reports are true, has been anything but spotless, and at the homes he has in a measure been the means of wrecking, and if possible atone for the sins he has committed. Fitcham has heretofore been a very peaceable man and he evidently thought he was in imminent danger, or he would never have fired the fatal shot, though he is pretty severely censured. Watkins leaves a wife and four bright children, whom he seemed to idolize. It is sad to think of the end to which he has come.

HUSTONVILLE.

—The normal school at the college opened Monday with a fair attendance. —Miss Beulah VanArsdale left last week for Nashville where she will visit relatives this summer.

—The thermometer has run the bicycles in the shade. The heat in Hustonville is crowding the 100° mark, how is it in Stanford?

—Miss Helen Taylor spent from Friday until Sunday with Miss Bessie Moore near Mt. Salem. M. F. North has returned from a trip to Eastern Kentucky.

—The Beech Grove Debating Society will meet Friday night, 22d, and decide who is the mother of the chicken, the hen that laid the egg or the one that hatched it?

—Your correspondent had a few of his young friends to spend the day with him last week. He most cordially asks them to come again as he surely enjoys the presence of young people.

—We notice the Stanford boys in our midst quite often. We like to see the boys come up every Sunday. We have some "mighty" sweet girls here, and so have they at home, so we will swap towns on Sundays.

—Will Dinwiddie made two trips to Yosemite last week in the interest of his employer. Mr. E. B. Powell is visiting in Lancaster. Wonder what takes him there? Hustonville looks quite lone some now. The schools girls all have gone, but some beauty yet remains there. Mr. W. C. Donaldson left Monday for his home near Shelbyville. Miss Lillian Shannon has been visiting Miss Maggie McKinney at Mt. Salem.

—Last Saturday night while returning from Mr. Dave Allen's, Miss Bessie Moore and a young lady who was visiting her and Mr. Ed Powell were thrown from a buggy by its upsetting and hurt Miss Moore very badly. She was thrown out on her face bruising it from her left eye to the chin, making a painful wound. She was thought to be seriously hurt for a while. After her fright wore off to some extent, she said she couldn't work her jaws, well, this frightened her again. That would frighten any woman though, for if they couldn't work their jaws they would most surely die. Miss Moore is of rare beauty and we sincerely hope the marks of that dangerous fall will not be left on her fair features.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

—Coal oil is selling at four cents per gallon in Chicago.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—There is a Hebrew tradition that Eve survived Adam, and was, therefore, the first widow.

—Miss Jennie Mayo, a Middlesex, Vt., belle has created a sensation by secretly marrying a negro porter, but as there is no law against miscegenation there her folks can do nothing.

—Andy Sharpe, of Roseville, this State, is charged with poisoning his bride of four months. He gave her a dose of medicine and she died a few moments afterwards. A mob is hunting the second.

—Mrs. Mary Standiford Keller, of Louisville, daughter of the late Dr. Standiford, will institute suit for divorce against her husband, Murray Keller, alleging abandonment. They were married 18 years ago.

—Benjamin F. Cox, a prominent young man of Boston, committed suicide because Laura Wheelwright, whom he loved, married another man. And yet there are nearly 100,000 more women than men in Massachusetts.

—W. A. McKinney, a prosperous farmer of the McKinney section, and Mrs. Laura Montgomery, sister of Jailer Sam M. Owens, were married yesterday afternoon at Mr. Hugh Logan's in Hustonville. The bride is an excellent lady and will make a helpmeet worthy of the name. We extend congratulations.

HUBBLE.

—Mr. Bryon, of London, Ohio, is visiting at George Eubanks' this week.

—Look out for rabid dogs in this community, as some have had fits and died.

—Miss Lulu Owsley will teach for us again this Fall and the district is well pleased with the selection.

—But few people attended the skow on the 8th at Danville, showing what close money matters we have in this community.

—Wm. Hubble is having his house repainted. Some talk of repainting the church here and if it is done it will not be before it needs it.

—Eubanks Bros. let the contract to build their house to Barker & Yeager at $2,250, everything delivered on the ground and board the hands while at the job.

—Mr. F. G. Nannelley has engaged to strip James Robinson's grass seed for three-fourths of the seed. He turns over his contract to another party for a nice profit.

—Greenberry Bright, Jr., went to see his best girl, near Richmond, Friday, and came home Sunday night; got up about daylight Monday and has been cutting barley and plowing corn all the week.

—J. J. Walker is now at Clear Creek Springs, near Pineville, for his health. Here is flesh and better feelings to him, besides a good time. Joe Ab Rigney, of Casey, is up with a lot of cattle, trying the market.

—Will Robinson has gone to Middleboro to take a position as clerk in the Mingo Coal Mines. We wish him success, as he is an excellent young man. G. P. Bright is the first to have corn in tassel. We expect the silk by the middle of June. John Bright, assisted by A. J. Rice, surveyed the Joe Swope farm here Tuesday. G. A. Swinebroad is building a new barn.

—What a splendid "spike team" Ant McGarvey and Jaby Jones are making in this Congressional race. A jackass and a cow yoked together never pulled a Buncombe county, North Carolina plow more gracefully.—Senator Hodges in Lexington Observer.

—Pensioners seldom die and none gives up his stipend. David McCoy, a pensioner of the war of 1812, who was born in Burke county, N. C., has just celebrated his 104th birthday at San Bernardino, Cal.

—Germans are most prone to suicide the Irish and negroes rarely resort to self-destruction.

Following are the dates fixed so far for the Kentucky Fair:

Germanstown, October 3 to 6.
Lexington, trotting, October 6 to 13.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed to cure. Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Three more buildings were begun yesterday.

—James Taylor died the first of this week, aged 70.

—The Signal will shortly erect a new brick building for office purposes.

—Our people were well pleased with the preaching of Rev. Joe Severance.

—A large delegation from this place will attend the Masonic picnic at Woodstock, St. John's day.

—Mrs. Debord, the mother of Mrs. Judge Collier of this place, died at Level Green, Tuesday, the 12th.

—The Ladies Aid Society has been instrumental in beautifying the interior of the Christian church. The ladies work who so unselfishly for the welfare of the public, should receive the hearty co-operation of all in their noble work.

—Houses!—That is the need 'of the town. A number of good people have been here during the past two weeks inquiring for houses to rent. There is not a vacant house in town and in some instances two and three families are living in the same building.

—Judge McClure is quite sick. Misses Lena McClure and Mary Ferguson have returned from Louisville. Mr. M. J. Miller is in Lancaster. Prof. Dickerson will teach our public school. Miss Lucille Joplin has returned from a visit to Paris.

—Among the volunteer wood cutters, hewers, etc., who assisted in putting up the new building for the stove mill, we noticed a brakeman, a section foreman, a conductor, an engineer, telegraph operator, merchant, blacksmith, farmer, butcher, stone cutter—in fact, nearly every trade and calling was represented.

The Sunday-School convention, which was held at the court-house, Saturday, June 9th, was a success, although the regular conductor, Mr. Boswell was unavoidably absent. Mr. W. J. Sparks, president, and Mrs. Cleo Brown, secretary and treasurer, were on duty. A number of visitors from Sunday-Schools in the county evinced a growing interest in this noble work, which was begun by Robert Raikes, of England, over 100 years ago.

—Monday morning our citizens turned out in gangs for the woods, cutting timber to erect a new building for Walters & Co., who lost their stove mill by fire. The saw mills each gave a day's sawing, and by the time this matter is set in type a new building will have been erected where the fire occurred, without cost to the proprietors. The machinery, which was not badly damaged, is being repaired and some new stuff is now on the road and it will be but a short time till everything will be in shape for work at the mill.

—Three fires occurred near this place within 24 hours. Saturday night at 12:30 the stove mill of Walters & Co., burned to the ground, entailing a loss of $2,000. The fire originated in some saw dust or shavings. A negro, who was asleep under the boiler only awoke when a portion of the roof fell on him. He escaped in a singed condition. The same night the distillery of D. P. Bethurum, three miles south of town went up in smoke. Loss $1,000. On Sunday night the barn and corn crib of Moses Payne was destroyed by fire. Incendiary. No insurance on any of these losses.

—Mr. Otho Sweeney, of Indian Territory, is visiting relatives in this county. Mrs. Will Henderson and Miss Bessie McClure attended the wedding of Hensley Brown at Parksville last week. Misses Nannie Kennedy and Gertrude Weber were appointed delegates to attend the State Sunday-School convention at Russellville. Miss Nellie Spradlin celebrated her fourth birthday by entertaining her young friends from 2 to 4 o'clock, last Tuesday. Mrs. John McKenzie is very ill. Messrs. Hansel & Sigman were selected by Superintendent Baker as his examiners. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Griffin have just recovered from a serious attack of measles. Miss Fannie McFerran, of Pine Hill, visited relatives here this week.

—The national officers of the United Mine Workers have issued a circular dwelling upon the conferences with the operators and the compromise secured. They say that they have gained much, and advise the miners to resume work next Monday.

ASHLAND, Wis.—The famous retreat in northern Wisconsin located on the Wisconsin Central Lines at the head of the Chequamegon Bay is a most desirable spot for one to spend a summer outing. It is by the beautiful Apostle Islands. Little need be said of its scenic beauty and health giving qualities. This place should not be overlooked by those figuring on a resort for their next summer's vacation. The tourist will find excellent fishing and boating at this point, and good hotel accommodations at very reasonable rates. For further particulars, maps, time tables, and guide books apply to Jas. C. Pond, Genl. Pass. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis.

"Many of the citizens of Painesville, Ind. are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children, that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

GOV. JAMES B. MCCREARY.

Owens and Settle spoke at Lexington Monday to a vast audience, after being introduced by Judge Jere Morton, who made the strongest speech against Breckinridge of either of them. The two candidates indulged in some personalities, and the Owens men tried to down Settle, till Mr. Owens asked that he be given a respectful hearing. Owens did not go for Breckinridge as he did at Paris, though he took occasion to say that he stood by every word that he uttered there, adding: "I want to say now that if any man feels aggrieved at any statement I then made or may hereafter make, let him come like a man to me and not sneak off and hide himself behind that long-eared, long-haired, rack-brained and irresponsible brute" (meaning Charles C. Moore, editor of the Bluegrass Blade). Mr. Settle made an excellent speech and created the impression that he is a foeman worthy of any man's steel.

The rumor is again rife that Col. Breckinridge will withdraw from the race, but such a consummation, however greatly it is to be wished, will hardly be vouchsafed. He ought to do so though for the good of the party, which has heretofore delighted to honor him, and for every other reason. All the moral and religious forces are arrayed against him and if by the possession of the machine, he should receive the nomination, he must and will be beaten in the final struggle. The good people of the district can not afford to condone the offenses, of which he has acknowledged himself guilty. Let him first do works meet for repentance and then they may take him to their hearts again.

The court of appeals has finally gotten together enough to fix to morrow for adjournment for the summer months. It is said that there has not been a full bench for three months, the members being at home either for the purpose of mending their fences or attending to other private business. And yet it is claimed that the court is overworked and years behind in the docket. The superior court has already grown hot and weary and shut up shop for three months or more. It will shut up for good, we are glad to state, Dec. 30 next.

Miss ELVIRA SYDNOR MILLER, the bright little genius who presides over the Louisville Times Tattler Column, proved at the banquet to the Press Association at Frankfort that she is as gifted in oratory as in ability to write the right thing in the right way. Her response to a toast, which is given in the Capital, is the brightest gem that shines in the beautiful collection of gems which were shed abroad during the meeting. Editor C. M. Meacham again distinguished himself as a wit and humorist of the most pleasing order of talent.

TUESDAY was the 90th day since the adjournment of the Legislature, the time when all bills not passed with the emergency clause became effective. All married women are now practically feme soles and can trade in their own names, sued and be sued just like a common every day man. Hereafter men, who marry for money, will get left unless they can work the rabbit's foot on their wives and make them transfer their property.

JUDGE BARR's decision with reference to the Separate Coach law is causing trouble in a matter that seemed to have settled down to the satisfaction of everybody. Most people are content to let well enough. It is a pity that Judge Barr had not been of that class. Negroes all over the State are refusing to go into the Jim Crow cars and when forced to do so or not ride, bring suits for damages.

No one can read Mr. Watterson's matchless response to Dr. Cave and the St. Louis ladies, who contend that wars of conquest are always wrong and those of defense right, and that therefore the South was right, without enjoying it. It furnishes good reading even for these torrid times, and prove conclusively that the great editor is a thoroughly reconstructed rebel and a patriot.

The statement is made that out of nearly 800 criminals in the Kansas penitentiary there are only 14 women. If the crop of Mary Yellin Leases increases however, things will change. When women get out of their sphere they are liable to land in the penitentiary or anywhere else.

The insanity proceedings against Prendergast, the assassin of Mayor Harrison, has been put off to Nov. 12. The collusion of the judges to thwart justice in this case amounts to a crime, which ought to be investigated by Judge Lynch and a jury.

As many of his constituents have not seen their Congressman since he shaved off his moustache, we give his picture as he now appears, so that they will know him when he comes around, before he takes them by the hand in his cordial way and asks about the old woman and the babies.

"HAPPY JACK" has no wings at all, but he got there all the same. The news comes from Washington that John H. Miller, of Stanford, has been appointed consul to Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, on the recommendation of Senator Lindsey and Gov. McCreary. There never was a better democrat or a more clever man, and his friends are rejoiced over his good luck. The Falkland Islands belong to Great Britain, are a group of about 200 and lie some 250 miles east of the nearest point in the main land of the most Southern part of Patagonia, in the extreme of South America. Port Stanley has about 1,000 inhabitants. It is a long way from home for "Happy Jack" to go, and the only fear is that he will never find his way back. According to the "Blue Book" the salary of this consulate is $2,000, besides there are traveling and other expenses allowed.

In the event that Breckinridge is re-nominated, it is stated that Maj. H. C. McDowell, a republican, will be urged to run independently and will be supported by the best men. Gen. Basil Duke, one of Morgan's right hand men, says he will take the stump for him.

VIRGINIA hasn't a single republican in her Legislature and Oregon, at the other end of the country, has hardly a democrat. The Legislature she elected the other day has a republican majority of 52.

NEWSY NOTES.

—James H. Kirk, 71, is dead in Union county.

—A third of England's telegraph operators are women.

—In the Rhode Island Legislature Geo. P. Wetmore was unanimously elected United States Senator.

—A cemented tomb, containing 22 male skeletons averaging eight feet in height, has been unearthed at Eagan, S. D.

—Its president has practically admitted that the profits of the sugar trust for the last three years were over $35,000,000.

—Col. Breckinridge's name has been dropped from the rolls of honorary members of the Union League Club at Chicago.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Leffler, wealthy residents of Carthage, Ill., have been indicted for starving their little son to death.

—At Millersburg, Charles H. Jennett, deputy United States marshal, was shot and killed by Frank Mitchell. Mitchell escaped.

—Special United States Commissioner Roberts has decided that laborers' wages are subject to garnishment for the necessities of life.

—Five women engaged in a fight at Breeden, W. Va., and Mrs. Lizzie Maynard was killed and Jennie Morris mortally wounded.

—The society of Bennington, Vt., is all agog over the marriage of Miss Jennie Mayo, a society belle, to Thomas Strong, a colored hotel porter.

—The Senate has passed a bill fixing the salaries of railway postal clerks. The clerks are divided into seven classes, with salaries from $800 to $1,800.

—The Virginia republicans have decided that it is unwise to nominate candidates for Congress this fall, but will not prevent anyone from running.

—Kansas populists have re-nominated Gov. Lewelling. A woman suffrage plank was adopted by the convention, and the A. P. A. was denounced.

—Twenty years ago W. A. Van Sickle, of New Jersey, lost his watch on his farm. It was unearthed a few days ago and ran all right, when he had wound it up.

—The Chinese plague is spreading to an alarming extent. Hundreds of deaths are reported daily, and scarcely a home in Hong Kong that does not contain a corpse.

—Samuel J. Pugh, of Vanceburg, was nominated for Congress by the republican convention of the Ninth district, which was held at Augusta, Bracken county.

—The grand jury of Sullivan county, Indiana, has returned indictments against 50 persons, some of them prominent, for inciting and participating in the anarchistic demonstration of the striking miners there.

—Peyton G. Bowman, leader of Kolb's Populist campaign in Alabama, shot and killed Eugene Jeffries because he denounced him in pretty strong terms for knocking his Jeffries, father down.

—The stockholders who put up the money to make the World's Fair a success have received a 10 per cent. dividend on their stock, aggregating $790,000. The city of Chicago receives about $250,000.

—William Simsrott, the missing secretary and treasurer of the Switchmen's Union, is now locked up in a padded cell at the Washington Home, a hospital for inebriates. His shortage is between $30,000 and $40,000.

—The new constitution adopted in Hawaii is fixed so that foreign-born citizens may sit in the Senate provided they own $5,000 worth of property in the island. Fifteen years' residence confers eligibility to the presidency.

—Another bill for the free coinage of silver has been introduced in Congress by Senator Squire, of Washington. It proposes to limit the coinage to $4,000,000 a month and give the government the benefit of the seigniorage.

—The anarchist miners of Alabama are still at it. A mob of 40 armed men drove the watchman from a Georgia Pacific bridge and set it on fire. In six days seven bridges have been burned and several other attempts made.

—The ten mile road race for bicyclists was won at Louisville by John Spalding, of that city, in 28 minutes, with a handicap of five minutes. C. N. Minor, of Indianapolis, won the time prize, having covered the distance in 26:54 minutes.

—The Queen of Sheba, of John Robinson's circus, was formerly a Falmouth girl, Annie Leibolt. Her father is a shoe-maker of Falmouth. Many of her former friends and acquaintances called on her on the day of the show at Paris.—Kentuckian.

—Isaac Hanks, an aged miser of Rutland, Vt., has been found guilty of starving his wife to death. A recommendation of mercy accompanied the verdict, and the offender who is worth $75,000, was let off on a fine of $1,000 and costs. Hanks is 70 years old.

—Three more railway bridges in the Birmingham, Ala., mining district have been destroyed by fire and dynamite, the acts being attributed to the striking miners. The railroad companies have put a large number of armed patrolmen on watch to guard the remaining bridges.

—William Cameron, of Chattanooga, dressed himself to go to an entertainment and put a good deal of powder on his face. In some way the powder got up his nostrils and into his lungs. He had a severe coughing spell and died in a few hours. The powder contained arsenic and death was caused from arsenical poisoning.

—The miners' strike has been practically broken. The conference between the operators and the miners at Columbus ratified a compromise agreement for Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, to become effective next Monday. The compromise was on a basis of 69 cents a ton for Western Pennsylvania and 60 cents for Ohio.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Stanford Fair, July 19 and 20.
 —Lexington will have a trotting meeting July 5-7.

—FOR SALE.—100,000 tobacco plants J. F. Cook, Rowland.

—Apples have gone up to $50 a barrel at Chicago, owing to a corner.

—George Baker sold to C. G. Jones several head of fat cattle at 2 to 2½c.

—FOR SALE.—Yearling Durham bull, 900 pounds. W. H. Murphy, Stanford.

—Hon. John S. Owsley, Sr., sold to Bob Thompson 60 hogs, 255 lbs., at 42c.

—Farmer Jacob Roby, of near Dayton, O., hung himself because his crops promised to be a failure.

—Andrew Thompson bought of East End parties a bunch of fat steers and heifers at $12 to $17.

—J. J. Chapman bought last week from Holt & Graham 79 lambs, averaging 108 pounds, for June delivery, at 5½c.—Woodford Sun.

—D. C. Terhune, of Mercer, has bought up to date 77 first class mare mule colts at an average of $40.30.—Advocate.

—Mayville's fair date conflicting with the Danville date, it is said she will go back to her old date, week before the Lexington fair.

—It is said that White Nose, who ran at Latonia last Saturday is 11 years old, and has started in 1,000 races. Out of these he has won 125 times.

—Moses Kahn purchased in past few days, 622 fat cattle for future delivery at 4 and 4½ cents. Nelson Morris, of Chicago, through his agent, John Embury, bought over 1,200 head of fat cattle at about 4c a pound.—Paris Kentuckian.

—C. M. Spoonamore tells us that he did the proper thing by not standing his horse and jack this year. He shipped them to Missouri a month or so ago and has just heard that the gentleman he sent them to had disposed of them. The horse brought $200 and the jack $300.

—J. E. Carson has just finished a week's test of his Jersey cow, Cordelia Signal, 5th, 30 months old, with 14 pounds 5 ounces of butter. She is the 5th daughter of Cordelia Signal, record 18 pounds 15 ounces, and is the third to make a record. She was fed 6 quarts of ground oats and corn together and two quarts of oil meal. Mr. Carson raised the whole family mother and all.

—James Raines, who keeps the toll-gate on the Somerset pike, has a sow that has proven to be almost a gold mine to him. She is a mixture of Poland China and English Berkshire and weighs about 600 pounds. In five years old and during her short life has given birth to 109 pigs. These Mr. Raines has readily sold at $5 a piece, making a little over $500 in all. He has some 25 or 30 more engaged and if the sow lives to a ripe old age she will make her owner enough money to buy a first-class blue grass farm.

The annual June oratorical contest between the literary societies of Centre College, was won by Robert Wickliffe, of Louisiana; H. H. McElroy, of Lebanon, getting the second.

We keep dinner sets in stock and sell you any piece you want separate. McKinney & Hocker.

ORDER OF ELECTION.

Lincoln County Court Held June 11, 1894. Hon. W. E. Varnon, Judge, Presiding.

A copy of the judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court in the case of W. E. Varnon, Judge of the Lincoln County Court, upon a motion for a Writ of Mandamus, was on the day of June 11, 1894, served upon the defendant as judge aforesaid by his accepting same, the portion of said judgment regarding the writ of mandamus, is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Lincoln Circuit Court.
 W. E. Varnon, and others, Pls.
 W. E. Varnon, Judge of Lincoln County Court, Co. Clerk, Deft.

This cause was submitted by the parties upon their agreed statement of the questions in controversy and of the facts on file, and upon a affidavit on file, and on the motion of plaintiffs for writ of mandamus, notice of which motion was served by the defendant, and the court being advised is of opinion, and so adjudged that it was the legal duty of the defendant as judge of the Lincoln County Court to order the election asked for by plaintiffs in their petition to said defendant, and that plaintiffs are entitled to the remedy sought by their motion; their motion is therefore sustained, and the writ of mandamus is awarded against W. E. Varnon, Judge of the Lincoln County Court, by which he is commanded at the next regular term of the Lincoln County Court, to enter upon the order book of his court an order directing an election to be held in and for the city of Stanford and directing the Sheriff of Lincoln County to hold an election and open a poll therefor at each of the voting places in said city, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said city upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein. Inasmuch as, by reason of the refusal of defendant to make said order at the regular term of said court when plaintiff's application was made, it is now too late to hold said election on the day designated in the plaintiffs' petition, to-wit: On the 3rd day of June, 1894, and at the same term enable the sheriff to comply with the requirements of the law, that the said election should be advertised by him at least two weeks before the day of election, the defendant is commanded in his said order for said election to fix another and later day as reasonably near the day asked for by plaintiffs as will afford ample time for the advertisement thereof required by law. And this writ of mandamus he will in no wise omit to obey. In obedience to the command in said writ as above fully set out and it appearing that the money to pay the expenses that applicants are by law required to pay has been paid into court: It is ordered that an election be held in the city of Stanford, Ky., on the 7th day of July, 1894, between the hours of 7 A. M. and 4 P. M. A poll to be opened at each of the voting places in said city for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said city upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, the result of said election to be certified to and returned as required by law in the election of county officers.

 Voting Precinct, No. 1. I. M. Bruce and B. K. Wearden, judges, W. R. Penny, clerk, J. D. Jones sheriff.
 Voting Precinct, No. 2. A. G. Eastland and J. H. Engeman, judges, J. R. Hales, sheriff, C. L. Carson, clerk.
 Voting Precinct, No. 3. J. M. Hall and J. K. VanArsdale, judges, Joseph Coffey, sheriff, Wm. Severance, clerk.
 Attest: GEO. B. COOPER, Clerk Lincoln County Court.

LOST HORSES.

There left my pasture near Hales' Well on Saturday, June 2nd, '94, a white mare and black horse. Mare about 15 hands high and heavy built. Horse bluish in knees and hind ankles. Reasonable reward for their return or information leading to their recovery.
 JAMES W. HUTCHISON, Stanford, Ky.

POSTED.

There personally appeared before me, justice of the peace in and for Lincoln county, William Wright, Dr. James Kiffe and Melvin Reynolds, who state on oath that they are the parties who valued the cow, an estray on the farm of A. C. Dunn. The said cow is a speckled roan, about 10 years old; she has the hump of her tail off; she will weigh about 550 pounds. They furthermore state that they regard her as worth eighteen dollars. ($18.) Said cow came to A. C. Dunn and April 25, 1894.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Miss Mary Hall, of Monticello, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. C. A. Cox.

Mrs. Will Severance has returned from a visit to her parents in Shelby.

Misses Virginia Bowman and Josephine Reid are visiting in Danville.

Mrs. George P. Taylor and son, of Burnside, are guests of Mrs. L. B. Cook.

Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Sizemore are attending Georgetown College commencement.

Mrs. C. T. Bohon, of the West End, is the guest of her relative, Mrs. S. P. Stagg.

Mrs. Neffie Patterson and Mrs. John Jameson, of Paris, are visiting Mrs. G. C. Givens.

Mrs. James Tompkins, of Harrodsburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Gooch.

Miss Cora Jones, of Indiana, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris and other relatives.

Miss Jean Dick, of Crab Orchard, is the guest of her little friend, Miss Virginia Warren.

Mrs. Mary Pence is not expected to live but a short time owing to the infirmities of old age.

Mr. Basil Gurst, of Danville, has taken a position on the editorial staff of the Louisville Post.

James D. Wearen received a very painful wound in his left thumb while working with his bicycle.

Mr. J. T. McRoberts and wife, of Middleboro, are visiting his father, Mr. J. M. McRoberts, Jr.

Mrs. Gen. S. P. Gross, of Frankfort, is visiting Mrs. A. M. Feland. The general is expected to-day.

Mrs. E. W. Atherton, of Athertonville, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. B. N. Roller and Mayme Cardin.

Miss Laura Logan Carter, a beautiful blonde of this county and graduate of Hamilton College, has been the guest of Miss Jennie Hocker.

Miss Kate Bogie, of Hustonville, who taught music at Corbin Institute last session, went up to Pittsburg Wednesday to secure a school there.

Miss Sadie Lillard arrived from Stonewall Jackson Institute, Abingdon, Va., Tuesday. Her father, Mr. R. W. Lillard, met her at Big Stone Gap.

Misses Lucy and Mattie Alcorn have returned from Oxford, O., College to their father, Dr. Ed Alcorn's, Hustonville, the former with a well earned diploma.

J. W. Bright, of the Hubble section, has engaged with the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse Co., of Louisville, and will solicit for it in this and adjoining counties.

There was much regret at the hop over the absence of Misses Maggie and Mattie Owsley, who were kept at home by sickness, of a not very serious nature we are, however, glad to say.

Mrs. Mary L. Withers, a very hand-some widow, has been on a visit to her cousin, Mr. W. W. Withers. She is connected with the Boston newspapers and is a very accomplished writer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cam Hays and Misses Mary and Margaret Walker returned from Eureka Springs, Ark., Tuesday, all improved in health. Mr. Hays thinks his winter outing helped his cough very much.

The charming and talented Mrs. James I. McKinney, "Katydid," and her beautiful friend, Mrs. Thornton, of Montgomery, Ala., returned home yesterday much improved in health by a visit to Crab Orchard. Miss Katie Slaughter accompanied Mrs. McKinney.

CITY AND VICINITY.

The Courier-Journal meanly insinuates that Mr. Cleveland wanted to send "Happy Jack" Miller as far off as possible.

The contract for the Danville water works was let to H. DeLong & Co., of Lexington, who will do all the work and furnish the necessary machinery, for $60,000.

While being milked the other night a cow belonging to Henry James, of the East End, coughed up a bag containing a pair of stockings, a bunch of keys and a lot of small nails.

J. H. Baker, who is claimed as husband by two women, and who was defended by W. S. Burch at the examining trial, failed to appear and Mr. Burch, who went his bail, may have to pony up.

While Jess and Luke, little sons of T. L. Carpenter, were playing on a lumber pile, it fell with them, bruising Luke considerably and cutting Jess' leg severely and making a surgeon's attention necessary.

One sample Whiteley binder for sale at the low price of $75. Farria & Hardin.

See our elegant line of clothing for men and boys; also new line of pants at one-half regular price. B. F. Jones & Son.

The genial host at Crab Orchard Springs, Mr. Gus Hofmann, extends a general invitation to the opening hop, which occurs next Tuesday night.

Carroll Reid has a very promising two-year-old thoroughbred that he named Lucy Lee, for the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walton.

A good many of our young folks will attend the opening hop at Linnietta Springs to-night, 15th. Captain Richards extends a cordial invitation.

One more lot of sample slippers received, in white kid and canvas, black, tan, red, gray, &c. Nice line of patent leather pumps. B. F. Jones & Son.

W. H. Shanks, who went down to the commencement at Centre College and took in the game between the Centres and the Louisville Athletics, tells us that the former won 6 to 2.

A clothing drummer from Cincinnati came over from Lancaster Wednesday with 1,700 pounds of express baggage, and Fish and Holderman had to get a move on themselves for once.

The skin of one of Mr. J. E. Bruce's lambs was found on his place the other day. He had missed several of his lambs before that, but did not know he was being robbed of them in that style.

During the Summer months I will have a class in vocal and instrumental music. Parties desiring either will please give me a call. Theory and sight reading free. Mrs. Margaret A. Portman.

The store of J. H. Collier at Crab Orchard was broken into Wednesday night and goods to the value of $25 or more stolen. The rascals, whose identity is unknown, entered through a window.

Two governors and one ex-governor occupied the stand at the Centre College commencement, all graduates of the institution—Govs. Brown, of Kentucky; Matthews, of Indiana, and last and greatest of all, J. Proctor Knott.

A dispatch from Middleboro says that Missouri capitalists are negotiating with B. G. Pennington for the purchase of his zinc mines in Claiborne county, Tenn. These are said to be the finest mines of the kind in the country.

The Eubanks Bros., Crit and Mac, have contracted with Barker & Yeager, of Danville, for a dwelling on the site of the one recently burned. It will be two stories high, contain eight rooms and cost, when completed, about $3,000.

Henry McCormack, a negro, was tried before Squire Smiley in the West End on the charge of house-breaking and sent on to circuit court. He was placed in Constable Joe Shannon's hands to deliver to the jailer, but soon gave the officer the slip and left for parts unknown.

The weather continues excessively warm, the mercury reaching up in the 90s in the middle of the day. Farmers already begin to complain that they need rain, but the weather service does not promise it: "Fair continued warmer. Slightly cooler Friday night," is the way yesterday's dispatch read.

STRUCK DUMB.—A man was found wandering around town yesterday in an aimless manner and upon inquiry it was found that he had been struck dumb. He had been in Danks', the jeweler, and the low prices on watches, jewelry, etc., so paralyzed him that he was unable to talk. This is not an advertisement, but it simply shows what low prices will do.

WANTED.—A good public school anywhere in Kentucky. I have a first class certificate, under which I can teach in any school in the State. I have taught for 10 years and refer to ex-trustees and patrons in Stanford, Rowland, Lancaster, Mt. Xenia, Brights, White Oak, &c., in Lincoln and Garrard counties. Address M. D. Hughes, Lancaster, Ky. 2t.

ELOPEMENT.—Mr. J. D. Holderman, better known as "Debo," took the train here yesterday morning with pretty Miss Della Potter, aged 15, and fled with her to Jellico, where he has doubtless ere this made her his wife. Mr. Holderman is a line-man for the Electric Light Co. and an industrious, clever man. He is a widower with one child, his first wife having been Miss Fannie Straub.

The program for the Caledonian Literary Society meeting at the court-house to-morrow night, 16th, is as follows: Address by the president, R. M. Newland; paper by Thomas Miller Owsley; solo Miss Alice Holmes; declamation, Black Horse and Rider, Wm. Hocker; music, Messrs. Fish and Mudd; declamation, "Sparticus to the Gladiators," Ashby Warren; music, Fish and Mudd; debate, "Resolved that a Chicken can Roost with more comfort on a Round Pole than on a Square Pole," to be affirmed by J. A. Beasley, W. H. Shanks and W. S. Burch and negatived by Jack Beasley, Logan Hughes and S. W. Menefee; music, Fish and Mudd. The society having disbanded at Turnersville, it will hereafter meet at Stanford.

THE MERRY BACHELORS' HOP.

The Seventeenth Annual Hop given by the Merry Bachelors of Stanford Wednesday night was a shining and coruscating success. Walton's Opera House was ablaze with beauty, the brightness of whose eyes dimmed the electric lights and made the scene one never to be forgotten. The young gentlemen were on their good behavior, not a single thing occurring to mar the happiness of the occasion. Spectators were out in force and seemed heartily to enjoy the graceful movements to music that was simply grand. Saxton's orchestra furnished it and every one said he never danced to better. Mr. Saxton is as clever too as he is gifted in producing a harmony of sweet sounds and never failed to respond willingly to an encore or refused to grant a request. The boys all fell in love with him and his band and say that hereafter it is Saxton or nobody. An elegant lunch was served at 1 o'clock at the St. Asaph Hotel, whose dining room had been beautifully decorated with vines and flowers. It was 4:30 before the last couple took a reluctant leave of the happy scene, feeling sad to think that 'twas bright, 'twas heavenly, but 'tis past. The young ladies who graced the occasion are given below, with a description of their costumes:

Miss Isabel Owsley, Hubble, pink Swiss; flowers.
Miss Maggie Miller, Lancaster, pink silk; diamonds.

Mrs. B. H. Danks, white flowered organdie; diamonds.
Mrs. Dr. W. B. Penny, black moire; gold.
Miss Sue Willie Hale, light blue crepe de chine, ribbon trimmings; gold.
Miss Nettie Wray, white organdie; pearls.
Miss Isabella Bailey, white organdie.
Miss Henry Fish, blue mull; diamonds.
Mrs. George L. Penny, Paris muslin; diamonds.

Little Miss Allie Huffman, white mull.

The following young ladies were present but did not participate in mazy waltz:

Misses Linda and Emma Owsley, Annie and Mary Alcorn, Nannie Kennedy, Jennie McKinney, Jennie and Marie Warren, Jennie Feland, Maud Welsh, Annie Dunn, Susie Lasley, Ida Bentley, Lizzie and Lucie Menefee and Miss Mertie Hale, of the Kansas City Times.

Among the spectators also were the following ladies who added dignity to the occasion: Mesdames J. S. Hundley, J. E. Portman, Catharine Burnside, William Moreland, Joseph Coffey, Sallie J. Severance, Steele Bailey, B. N. Roller, A. G. Huffman, Jennie Dunn, Mrs. St. Clair.

The young gentlemen from Danville were: Messrs. Batterton, Harlan, John and Homer Baughman, Lawwill, Verge and Dolph Rice, Richardson, Yeager, Dillehay, Downton, Burk, Shelby.

Those from Harrodsburg were: Messrs. Forsythe, Tabler, Ferguson, Miller and Owens.

Lancaster: Messrs. J. Y. and J. F. Robinson, Marksberry, Sweeney.

Crab Orchard: Joe Brooks.

Louisville: Will J. Yager.

London: E. K. Wilson.

Pittsburg: J. H. Pugh.

AL WATKINS KILLED.—In our last issue we chronicled the fact of the shooting of Conductor W. L. Peairs at Yosemite by Al Watkins, after most treacherous conduct on his part. We are now called upon to chronicle Mr. Watkins' demise. He was removed Tuesday morning by Frank Flinchum, a section boss on the Green River Railroad, with a double barrel shot gun loaded with buck-shot or other leaden missiles. Watkins had had his examining trial at Liberty the day before for shooting Peairs and had given the $1,000 bond required of him. At the trial he sent Flinchum word to meet him at a certain place, as he wanted to talk with him. Flinchum returned the information that he didn't care to see him, but if Watkins was especially anxious to interview him, he knew where he lived. Tuesday morning he called at Flinchum's early, but he declined to see him, and when he called the second time, he let him have the contents of his gun, killing him instantly. He had sent Flinchum word that he intended to kill him, and as Flinchum knew that he had killed two men and tried to kill a third, he was satisfied that he meant business, so he took no chances. Watkins claimed that Flinchum had been too intimate with his wife, a charge that had been laid at the doors of a number of men, against all of whom Watkins had sworn vengeance, and who will now breathe easier since his ability to carry out his threat has been materially abridged, not to say entirely destroyed.

CIRCUIT COURT.—James Evans, the negro who stole E. P. Woods' mare and sold her in Washington county, for $5.50, plead guilty and was given four years. It is told that Hon. W. H. Miller, who defended him, broke down in his speech and could not proceed on account of his emotion. The negro's people had belonged to Mr. Miller's family and he felt much interest in him. The scene out a year or two off the verdict. Wm. Stampfer, plead a former conviction, for the same offense and was acquitted of carrying concealed weapons. James McGill, a raggy, dirty, negro boy from Milledgeville, was up for breach of the peace, but no witnesses appearing, the court discharged him. John Traylor for maliciously cutting his brother, Alex Traylor, was fined $75 and costs. The Commonwealth made out a case sufficient to send the defendant to the penitentiary, but his witnesses showed that he was almost as much sinned against as sinning, and many thought he ought not to have been fined at all.

The grand jury, after five days' effort, adjourned Wednesday, having found only nine indictments, the smallest number in the recollection of any court official. They are as follows: I. F. Steele, bribing voter; J. H. Baker, bigamy; Henry McCormack, petit larceny, 2 cases; J. G. Weatherford and Cale Brown, selling liquor on Sunday; Frank Hogue, illegal voting; Jim Evans, horse stealing, since convicted, and Trice and Givens, house breaking, acquitted. Zed Bright and Sheridan Simpson, for stealing corn from J. A. & S. T. Harris. Bright dismissed by Commonwealth on account of age and Simpson given 60 days. Caleb Bright, trespass, acquitted. Arthur McGinnis fined $10 for shooting at W. R. Akin. Jury hung last court in this case. Charles Crutchfield, malicious cutting, released on his own recognizance.

A good deal of work has been done so far. All of the important criminal cases have been tried, leaving no murder case on the docket, for a rarity. A considerable amount of civil business has also been done and Judge Saufley says he will clear the docket or fight it out on the present line all Summer.

The suit of Gillispie vs. Bastin & Collier for $5,000 damages for cutting the timber off his land, occupied the court all day yesterday. There were a dozen lawyers in the case and they all had to speak.

Mr. J. R. Warren has intelligence from T. S. Riggs, at Providence, Mo., that his brother, Silas Riggs, and Mr. Warren's nephew, had died very suddenly. He was a man of considerable means, and leaves a wife and three children.
